Questions for Tonight

Why did the Knights Templar exist?
What did they accomplish?
What are the Mysteries?

- What is Spirit?
- What is Soul?
- What is Life?
- What is Matter?

- Who are You? Where do You come from? Why are You here?
- What is the Human Being?

What does “Oh Man, Know Thyself!” mean?
Deeper Theme Tonight: What is Man?

- Constantly evolving (so are Heavenly beings)
  - Implies reincarnation
- 3-fold Soul
  - Thinking, Feeling, and Willing
  - Related to the three Hierarchies
  - Skeletal structure
    - Head – sphere (thinking)
    - Rhythmical – lemniscate (feeling)
    - Limbs – radial (willing)
- 4-fold Human Members
  - Human: From Heavens to Earth, backbone vertical
  - Animal: With the Earth, backbone horizontal
  - Plant: From Earth to Heavens, backbone vertical
  - Matter: Earth’s image of Heavens
Knights Templar Outer “Secrets”

• Wisdom, Beauty, Strength/Virtue
  – Astral, Life (or Etheric) Body, Physical Body

• Initiation Process
  – Outer: 3 degrees of craftsman: apprentice, journeyman, master
  – Inner: Multiple levels (unknown). Begun with kissing one’s hierophant and spitting on the image of the cross.

• Templars freed the soul for the spirit:
  – The roads from thieves, seas from pirates, trade from tolls, craftsmen from being requisitioned, even freed serfs

• Templars altered Western Society
  – Gothic cathedrals, arts & philosophy schools, agriculture, banking

• A whole new society likely would have resulted
  – Templars continued to reinvest its money because they could not benefit from it personally nor accumulate it
  – Templars were therefore a rival to the power of kings and church
Kissing the Hierophant

- Giotto
- The Kiss of Judas
- Gospel of Judas
- The Templar kissed his hierophant after initiation
- Why? One begins by recognizing own faults & embracing all
Matthias Grünewald 1470-1528

Not the dead Christ
Isenheim Alterpiece (c. 1512-1516)

- Spit on the Cross
- Living Cosmic Christ
- This depicts what the Knights Templar valued
- Wounds transformed
- Their mysteries about the uniting of the Cosmic Christ, the Sun Being, with the Earth
  - Christ, after 3 years, becomes Man
  - Blood of Christ flows into the Earth
  - No longer my blood, but Christ’s blood that flows in me
  - Mankind can now unite with Christ
- “If He had not risen, then our faith is in vain”
Knights Templar Wisdom

- Something happened during first 7 years
  - Excavating in Solomon’s Temple looking for the Ark
    - What was the Ark? Why is it powerful?
  - Exposed to all the “heretical” schools in Jerusalem area
    - Essenes, Greek, Egyptian, Persian, Gnostic, Christian
    - What did they believe?

- Although we don’t know for sure, we can surmise from
  - Fruit of their works: Gothic cathedrals, agriculture, culture
    - Selflessly brought to Europe. No nationality. No egoism.
    - Sudden rise in membership, activities
  - Reached a level of Christian Initiation
    - Spiritual insights, guidance streamed into the Knights Templar
    - Recognized by King Baldwin, St. Bernard, others
    - Order sanctioned by the Church but it operated independent of Church or State
    - Wisdom based on the past wisdom, but updated for their time
Chinon Parchment Absolves Knights

• Knights Templar confess to
  1. Kissing their hierophant
  2. Spitting on a statue of Jesus on the cross
Other acts they deny once freed from torture

• The Pope wrote: “We hereby decree that they are absolved by the church and may again receive Christian sacraments.” Signor Forgione said that the Pope had failed to make this absolution public because the scandal of the Templars had aroused extreme passions and he feared a church schism. Philip IV had de Molay and other Templar leaders put to death before the Pope’s verdict could be published, and it was subsequently lost.
http://www.thetimes.co.uk/article/0,,2-252124,00.html

• 700 years later: “The Roman Catholic Church graciously acknowledged that the Knights Templar were innocent yesterday (Vatican Information Service, 4th Oct). The news was reported in the press today, exactly seven days before the 700th anniversary of the persecution of the Order. The persecution of the Templars began on Friday, 13 October 1307, when the medieval organisation was unjustly attacked and driven underground.”
Under the Surface History of the Templars

• Templars at a time when illness beset Christianity
  – Great Schism. Christendom split between East & West
  – Roman families had put “their man” in as the pope
  – St. Francis arises to “rebuild my church” – penances sold, rich got best pews
  – Western flow of culture (India→Persia→Egypt→Greece→Rome) → East by Constantine
  – Slaughter of the Heretics. Manichaeists, Persian Nestorians, Paulicians
    • Banning of the Aristotelians for being too close to the heretics
    • Ecumenical councils to define and dogmatize the faith and to justify the slaughter
  – Destruction of the Cathars (followed debates) 1020-1233
    • Rise of Dominicans and Inquisition. “First Crusade” was internal.

• Rise of the Templars as a healing force
  – Hugues de Payens was himself or was educated by Grail Knights
    • Council de Troyes 1128. Chretien de Troyes: Perceval, the Story of the Grail 1181-91
    • Templar craftsmen assured their freedom from religious and political powers
  – Devotion: to Mystery of Golgotha (mission: healing of Europe)
    • No longer my blood but Christ’s blood in me
    • Fearlessness and strength in battle (10% were battle worthy)
      – Military wing in middle east

• International banking, building/architecture, commerce, built roads
  – No famines in western Europe during the 200 years of Templar prominence

• Awakening of European Intelligence: Aristotelianism to Albertus Magnus to Thomas Aquinas and Roger Bacon
  – Compare to Islamic Spain in 12th – 15th centuries
Understanding the Mystics and the Heretics

Exploring Esoteric Wisdom
The Mysteries

- The Mysteries were a secret wisdom in all societies
  - This “secret” existed side by side with the local religion
  - It shed light upon the highest questions. The sages of these peoples speak of the Mysteries with the greatest reverence
  - What was concealed in them? What did they reveal?
  - This spiritual eye allows us to see what the material eye sees, but in a higher light. Those initiated are in the position of a man who can see and who imparts his visual impressions to one born blind.

- Mysteries seen as something dangerous.
  - The way leading to the secrets of existence went through a world of terrors. And woe to him who tried to reach them unworthily

- There was no greater crime than the “betrayal” of these secrets to the uninitiated. The “traitor” was punished with death and confiscation of property.
  - The poet Aeschylus was accused of having brought something from the Mysteries to the stage. He escapes death only by fleeing to the altar of Dionysus and producing legal evidence that he was not an initiate.
Pythagoras of Samos (~580BC – ~500 BC)

- The first lover of Sophia (philosopher)
- Revered as a great mathematician, mystic, and scientist
- Aristotle: Pythagoras was a wonder-worker with a “golden thigh” (a sign of divinity) who could travel through space and time and to communicate with animals and plants
- The Pythia prophesied that his pregnant mother would give birth to a man supremely beautiful, wise, and of benefit to humankind
  - The Pythia was the priestess presiding over the Oracle of Apollo at Delphi.
    - The Delphic oracle was well established by the 8th century BC.
    - Its last recorded response was given in 393 AD, when the emperor Theodosius I ordered pagan temples to cease operation.
    - During this period the Delphic Oracle was the most prestigious and authoritative oracle in the Greek world.
- Legend says his teacher was Hermes Trismegistus of Egypt
  - Zarathustra (Zoroaster) to Hermes to Pythagoras
Heraclitus of Ephesus (535–475 B.C.)

- Declares the everlasting Word (Logos), the archetype of all
- “Everything is in a state of flux” Moralia, Fragments 40, 41
  - Opposites are necessary for life, but they are unified in a system of balanced exchanges
- “Hades is the same as Dionysus,” Dionysus, the god of lust for life, of germination and growth, to whom the Dionysian festivals were dedicated, is for Heraclitus the same as Hades, the god of annihilation and destruction.
  - Only one who sees life within death and death within life, and in both the eternal which is infinitely above life and death, his gaze alone can behold in the right light the disadvantages and advantages of existence. Then the disadvantages find their justification, for the eternal lives in them also. What they appear to be from the standpoint of the limited lower life is only illusory:
- “For men to get all they wish is not the better thing. It is disease.”
  - Heraclitus intends primarily to point out not the transitory quality of earthly things, but the splendor and majesty of the eternal.
- “Immortals take on mortality, mortals immortality; death is the eternal life of mortals, earthly life the death of immortals.”
  - Heraclitus spoke vigorously against Homer, Hesiod and the scholars of his day.
    - He did not want the gods furnished with attributes taken from the transitory world.
    - He could not respect as the highest a science which investigated the laws of the growth and decay of things. For him the eternal speaks through the transitory. He has a deeply significant symbol for this eternal: “The harmony of the world is of opposite tensions, as is that of the lyre or bow.” Unity is attained by the striving of forces in opposite directions and the harmonization of these diverging forces. One tone contradicts another, yet together they achieve harmony. If we apply this to the spiritual world we have the thought of Heraclitus:
- Describes “a path which is difficult to travel,” that anyone who approaches uninitiated will find only “obscurity and darkness but if an initiate be your guide, the path shines brighter than sunlight.” (Anth. Pal. Book IX, 540)
  - Heraclitus was called “The Obscure” because only the light of the Mysteries provided the key to his conceptions.
Plato (424–423 BC)

• From The Republic
• Three principles of the human soul
  – Thinking, feeling, and willing
  – Rational, Love/Desire, Deed Doer/Passion
    • Three Soul principles reflected in the functions of the State
  – Spirit aligned with third Soul principle
• “[soul] immortality is demonstrated by the previous argument, and there are many other proofs; but to see her as she really is, not as we now behold her, marred by communion with the body and other miseries, you must contemplate her with the eye of reason, in her original purity; and then her beauty will be revealed”
• “the soul which cannot be destroyed by an evil, whether inherent or external, must exist for ever, and if existing for ever, must be immortal”
• “the soul, when choosing a new life, must of necessity become different”
• And all coming to birth drink from “the river of Unmindfulness”
Plutarch (46 - 120 AD)

- Initiated into the Apollo Mysteries
  - Served as high priest of the temple of Apollo
    - Site of the Oracle at Delphi
- His writings and lectures led him to become a celebrity in the Roman empire
  - Guests came from all over the empire; congregated for serious conversation
  - Many of these dialogues were recorded and published (Moralia)
  - Influenced Renaissance writers, Shakespeare, and Emerson
- “For the god addresses each one of us as we approach him here with the words ‘Know Thyself,’ as a form of welcome, which certainly is in no wise of less import than ‘Hail;’ and we in turn reply to him ‘Thou art,’— (discussion of the coming and going of Beings) – But we have a ridiculous fear of death, we who have already died so many deaths, and still are dying! For not only is it true, as Heraclitus used to say, that the death of fire is birth for air, and the death of air is birth for water, but the case is even more clearly to be seen in our own selves: the man in his prime passes away when the old man comes into existence, the young man passes away into the man in his prime, the child into the young man, and the babe into the child. Dead is the man of yesterday, for he is passed into the man of to-day; and the man of to-day is dying as he passes into the man of tomorrow. … Our senses, through ignorance of reality, falsely tell us that what appears to be is.
  - Plutarch, Moralia, De E apud Delphos, 392 A–E. (The E at Delphi, 17 and 18.)
“For the god addresses each one of us as we approach him here, with the words ‘Know Thyself,’ as a form of welcome, which certainly is in no wise of less import than ‘Hail;’ and we in turn reply to him ‘Thou art,’ as rendering unto him a form of address which is truthful, free from deception and the only one befitting him alone, the assertion of Being. — (discussion of the coming and going of Beings) – But we have a ridiculous fear of death, we who have already died so many deaths, and still are dying! For not only is it true, as Heraclitus used to say, that the death of fire is birth for air, and the death of air is birth for water, but the case is even more clearly to be seen in our own selves: the man in his prime passes away when the old man comes into existence, the young man passes away into the man in his prime, the child into the young man, and the babe into the child. Dead is the man of yesterday, for he is passed into the man of to-day; and the man of to-day is dying as he passes into the man of tomorrow. … Our senses, through ignorance of reality, falsely tell us that what appears to be is.”

• Etheric – Threptikon
• Physical – Gaia

1 Thessalonians 5:23, Paul refers to human nature as consisting of body, soul, and spirit
Mystery of The Lord’s Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, thou art

- Thy name Be Hallowed
- Thy kingdom Come
- Thy will Be done

As it is in the Heavens

- Deliver us from Evil
- Lead us not into Temptation
- Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors
- Give us this day our Daily Bread

So also on the Earth

3 Fold Soul: Thinking, Feeling, & Willing

“And the Word became flesh”

4 Fold Human: Physical, Life, Astral, & Ego

And the flesh becomes Word
Understanding Greek and Gnostic Views

The Human Ego (lower): spirit-like qualities
- Willing (soul) operates between ego and astral

The Human Body consists of three:
- Astral: multiple dualities, seat of consciousness, spiritual organs
  - Feeling (soul) operates between astral and etheric
- Etheric: comprised four Ethers (warmth, light, chemical, life), habits
  - Thinking (soul) operates between etheric and physical
- Physical: with four Elements

    - Hindu
    - Buddhist
    - Japanese
  - Earth
    - Water
    - Air
    - Fire

- Plato: Reality is in the Idea. Idea is a real living being
  - Goethe: archetypal form
Human in Relation to Nature

- Human – creative spirit within, the “I am”
  - Head in heavens, feet on the ground, arms free
  - Backbone vertical

- Animal – life and soul within, no spirit
  - Head on earth plane, feet on earth, tail or trunk in free movement
  - Backbone horizontal

- Plant – life within, no soul
  - Head in the earth, limbs lifted up - horizontal
  - Trunk vertical

- Mineral – material, no life within
What is Man? Microcosm of the Macrocosm

- David’s question, “What is Man?” (Psalms)
- Delphi en-trance “Oh Man, Know Yourself”
- The without should kindle self-knowledge; the within should teach knowledge of the world

Here lies true spiritual insight into existence and the impulse to real human love
Consciously Crossing a Threshold

• Passing through the eye of a needle
  – Develop sense-free thinking
• Spiritual perception similar to an eye or camera
• Physical to Etheric
  – Things mirror-image, like a glove inside-out
  – Vortex
Mirror Writing – What was this about?

• Practice for what one encounters in the Astral World
  – Time: Conclusion first, then the sequence that led to conclusion
  – Sequence: End first, then sequence to start
    • Number 7936 appears as 6397 (mirror)
• Exercise: before sleep, review the day in reverse
  – Food returns to the plate and then to the stove
  – Impressions flow back to their source
What Became of the Mystery Streams?

- Twilight of the Gods, closing of the temples
- Continues underground – fewer attain initiation
- Contents always flow out into public knowledge
  - Aristotle and Alexander
- Flows into the Gnostics and other groups
- Christianity – declares the new mysteries
  - Zealous early Christians seek to destroy the old mysteries
    - Going back would be wrong, sinful
  - Heretics blamed for merging Christianity with old mysteries
    - Leads to their deaths and the destruction of their books
    - Ecumenical Councils used to justify their extermination
      - First European Inquisition and Crusade was against Cathars
      - Constantinople earlier had attempted to crush the Paulicians
- Mystery streams go further underground
  - Do they rise up in the Templar Knights?

Baptism & Initiation

Purification, Changing One’s Thinking
Initiation: A Multi-Stage Process

• Pre-Christian: administered by Hierophant
  – Mithraism had 7 stages
• Indian Yoga: administered by Guru
  – Devotion & 6 pre-conditions
  – 7 stages to intuitive receptivity
• Christian: Christ is the goal and guide (Templars)
  – Faith & 6 pre-conditions
  – 7 steps from washing the feet to perfect godliness
  – Facing temptations and coming to know your higher self
• Rosicrucian: Teacher-advisor (self mastery)
  – Free Will & 6 pre-conditions
  – 7 steps
  – Self knowledge is knowledge of the World
Mithras: Overcoming the Bull

- Grows out of Persia, Zoroastrianism, 1st century
- Known as the Mysteries of Mithras
  - mystery religion sworn to secrecy. Nothing could be written down
- Mithra serves as mediator
  - Between Ahura Mazda and the Human
    - Sun God Who Was Coming to Earth
- Strong astrological beliefs
- Overcoming the Bull (Taurus)
  - Bull fights in Spain
  - Make way for the Lamb (Aries) 800 BC

7 Stages of Initiation
1. Corax: The Raven (Mercury)
2. Nymphus: The Bridegroom (Venus)
3. Miles: The Warrior (Mars)
4. Leo: The Lion (Jupiter)
5. Perses: The Persian (Moon)
6. Heliodromus: The Messenger (Sun)
7. Pater: The Father (Saturn)
Initiation: General Remarks

• Initiates led tribes, ethnic groups
  – Intermediary between a people and their folk-spirit (god)

• Before Christ:
  – Hierophant placed the elect into a death-like sleep
    • Life body (etheric body) leaves with Astral body and Ego
    • Spiritual organs (chakras) opened in Astral body
  – Lasted 3 days within the Holy of the Holies
  – Elect has a guide who shows spirit-land and explains the relationship of spirit to matter, of beings to things, of macrocosm to microcosm (human)
  – Afterwards the elect becomes a perfect; takes on a new name
    • When cardinal becomes pope, he takes on a new name – similar

• Baptism (immersion) – Life body lifted out of physical briefly
  – Meant as purification for later initiation

• After Christ:
  – Lazarus and Paul (formerly Saul) done in public
  – Gospel writers and others early Christians were Perfects – i.e. Initiates
What Does [John’s] Baptism Mean?

• Who was John?
  – Messiah would not come until Elijah reincarnates (this is John)
    • See Mark 9:11-13 and Matthew 17:10-13 & 27:47
  – John: a Voice crying in the wilderness “Change your way of thinking”
    • Christ is the Word, the Logos
  – The witness of Christ sent by God

• What relationship does John have to Jesus? To Christ?
  – Luke’s story: Mary visits Elizabeth, John leaps in the womb
  – Grunewald’s Crucifixion: “He must increase; I must decrease”
  – John as the height and the last of old Man – Jesus as vessel for new

• Water to cleanse – the purification of the soul to receive the divine I Am (Ego)
  – He [Christ] will cleanse with Fire (Divine Ego)

• Submerged until near drowning to loosen the etheric, astral, and ego from physical body
  – Afterwards dim spiritual awareness continues allowing one to see what to purify
  – For Jesus, the dove descends and remains upon him
    • For the heretics & mystics, this is when Jesus becomes Jesus-Christ

• John is arrested and later beheaded (“on a silver platter”)
  – John’s spirit remains with Christ and his disciples to continue the witnessing
What Happens at Jesus’ Baptism?

• What was common to all paintings?
  – Dove (Logos) descends and remains with Jesus

• Mystic perspective
  – Zarathrustra Ego sacrifices his members for Christ, the Logos
    • Earlier he had sacrificed his members to enter Luke-Jesus
  – Jesus becomes Jesus Christ whose incarnation is consummated

• Birth of the Son of God, God becoming Man
  – Christ refers to himself as the “Son of Man”
  – Now will the spirit penetrate the body all the way to the bones
    • Thus, no bones were broken during these 3 years
  – Suffering death will complete God becoming Man

• Mark and John begin with baptism (not birth)
  – Luke genealogy after baptism, Matthew before
    • Luke genealogy (and gospel for humanity) makes sense only by going all the way back to Adam
    • Matthew writes for the Jews, hence to “our father, Abraham”
Fra Angelico, c.1441

- Baptism of Christ
- Two angels
- St. Francis (Franciscans) and St. Dominic(Ans)
- "No sooner had Jesus been baptized and come up out of the water than the heavens were opened and he saw the Spirit from God descending like a dove to alight on him. And there came a voice from heaven saying, 'This is my beloved Son, in whom I take delight.' (Matthew 3:16-17)."

Christian Initiation

Lazarus and Paul
Templar
Rosicrucian
Giotto (1267-1337), Raising of Lazarus
Who was Lazarus? What Happens to Him?

- Brother of Mary and Martha
- Tax collector, young man
- Lazarus is publicly initiated by Christ John 11:43-44
  - Lies as if dead for 3 days. Thomas asks if they too could experience.
    - “This illness is not unto death” John 11:4, “he stayed 2 days longer” John 11:6
    - “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awaken him out of sleep” 11:11
    - “Lazarus is dead … but let us go to him” John 11:14-15
    - “Lazarus, come forth” John 11:43
  - Prior, one being initiated found Christ in Sun Sphere (spiritually)
  - Initiate changes name afterwards
    - Lazarus changes his name to John, becomes John the Evangelist
      - Not to be confused with John Zebedee, the other John disciple
  - Higher members developed during initiation and afterwards
    - Easter Sunday Evening: John 20:19-23 “he breathed on them and said to them ‘Receive the Holy Spirit’ [the divine I AM]"
  - Becomes the disciple whom the Lord loved (agape)
  - [John 21:21-22] Peter, surprised that Christ has chosen him to lead His church and not John, asks Christ “what about him?” Christ answers “What is it to you that I have him remain until the time I come again?” When is this time to be that is foretold?
Last Supper “Touched Up”

- John is meant to be androgynous – as is Christ – Embody male & female
Dan Brown and the Rose Line

- Sang Real – Royal Blood
  - Brown’s theory: Mary Magdalene had a child from Jesus
- Blood of Christ: “This is my blood”
  - Christ overcomes the blood lines – no longer is heredity important
  - Each person can become his/her own king, priest, and healer
  - Love all without regard to the blood line
  - Blood as bearer of the Ego, Divine Ego, flows into the Earth
    - Earth to become a star, a star illuminated by the 10th hierarchy
- Symbol of the Rose
  - Green sap rises, transforms into blood red – chaste, passionless
    - When our blood unites with blood of Christ it is like red rose sap
  - Rose Cross (Rosicrucian mysteries)
    - Black cross, symbolic of our materialism, out of which grows roses
    - In Christos Morimor (In Christ we die)
Reincarnation

"Never was there a time when I did not exist, nor you, nor all these kings; nor in the future shall any of us cease to be. As the embodied soul continuously passes, in this body, from boyhood to youth to old age, the soul similarly will pass into another body after death. A sober person is not bewildered by such a change."

_Bhagavad Gita_, Chapter 2, texts 12-13
“Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:
  • Where were you when I laid the foundation of the Earth
  • When the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
  • Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
  • Where is the way to the dwelling of Light, and where is the place of Darkness that you may take it to its territory and that you may discern the paths to its home?
  • You know, for you were born then and the number of your days is great!”

Reincarnation gives expanded meaning. Job is the story about Humankind’s soul.
Biblical References to Reincarnation

- The Man born Blind
- John the Baptist as reincarnation of Elijah
- Hebrews 9:27 “It is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes the judgement”
- Hebrews 10:1 [Mosaic Law as] “but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities.”
- Marriage at Cana – Wine
- Last Supper – Wine & Blood
- Wine as instrument for forgetfulness of past lives
  - See also Plato’s Republic
  - 2000 year period
Why Reincarnation?

• Development of Human Freedom

• Why did it become forgotten?
  – Role of wine and alcohol – forget our past lives
  – Develop value for each and every life
    • Necessary step to develop true love for each and every human
• Touch me not (noli me tangere)
  – A process underway
    • Would touch affect Christ or Mary or both?
    • Think back to the heretics – matter is corrupted
  – Mary is the first one to experience the Risen Christ
  – What was done is available to all mankind – the future

    • Templars continued to reinvest its money because they could not benefit from it personally nor accumulate it
    • Templars were therefore a rival to the power of kings and church
    • Inwardly taught that one was to become their own King, Priest, and Warrior/Mason
• Could the metaphysical sciences help enlighten our efforts today to create a better world?
  – Could it help us relearn “E Pluribus Unum”—“Out of Many, One” by creating a true unity in diversity?
  – Can we allow the All Seeing Eye of Spirit to guide our individual and national life as our Founding Fathers did?
  – Can it be combined with Christianity?
• Where is the Christ if he is alive today?
It is all about Deeds that transform
  – Not for them or for me, but for the future
  – Wisdom driven
  – Beautiful to experience
  – Striven for in virtue with soul strength

I feel my fate. My fate finds me.
I feel my star. My star finds me.
I feel my goals. My goals find me.

My soul and the World are one.

Life grows more radiant around me,
Life becomes more difficult for me,
Life becomes richer within me.

• "The Secret Founding of America: The Real Story of Freemasons, Puritans and the Battle for the New World" by Nicholas Hagger (not a Mason)
  – "Nicholas Hagger argues that the new nation, conceived in liberty, was the Freemasons’ first step towards a new world order. He charts the connections between secret societies and libertarian ideals, explains how the influence of German Illuminati worked on the framers of the new republic, and shows the hand of Freemasonry at work at every turning point in America’s history—from the Civil War to the Cold War to today’s global struggles for democracy"

Evolution, Spiritual Science Perspective

- From Man and Animal by Hermann Poppelbaum
  - Published in 1931
- Genesis 2:4
  - Start of mineralized forms
- The human being is the "stem cell" of earthly evolution
- The first shall be last, and the last shall be first
- The descending "I Am" is both the germinal and archetypical human soul and the descending Christ
Creating the New Mysteries, New Yoga

- Reconnect macrocosm & microcosm
  - The Stars Once Spoke to Man (poem)

- Old yoga: breathing to connect outer with inner
  - 4 heart beats per breathe, 72:18 per minute, 25920 breathes per day – compare to time for sun to travel zodiac
    - Cosmic day = 25920 years. Cosmic hour = 1080 years.

- New yoga: breathing of the senses to connect inner with outer
  - 30 images (breathes) per second
    - After image (with complementary color) gradually fades away
    - We breathe in the image and exhale it
  - Each sense organ similar
Philip and the Mongols

1289: Letter from Mongol King Arghun to Philip

"Under the power of the eternal sky, the message of the great king, Arghun, to the king of France..., said: I have accepted the word that you forwarded by the messengers under Saymer Sagura (Bar Sauma), saying that if the warriors of Il Khaan invade Egypt you would support them. We would also lend our support by going there at the end of the Tiger year’s winter [1290], worshiping the sky, and settle in Damascus in the early spring [1291]. If you send your warriors as promised and conquer Egypt, worshiping the sky, then I shall give you Jerusalem. If any of our warriors arrive later than arranged, all will be futile and no one will benefit.”

• Not till 1298 does Philip agrees to military collaboration with the Mongols through the Knights Templar and their leader Jacques de Molay against the Mamluks
• In 1300, Jacques de Molay made his order commit raids along the Egyptian and Syrian coasts to weaken the enemy's supply lines
• In 1302, Templars are defeated at island Ruad
• 1305, new Mongol ruler Oljeitu sent letters to Philip, the Pope, and Edward I of England again offering military collaboration but now Philip’s focus is on the Templars’ treasury

- Earth and life on it has been evolving, solidifying, hardening
  - Seraphim commands (Is 6, 9-11) humanity to enter the age of "the valley of the shadow of death" (Ps 23,4; Lk 1,79; cf. Ezek 37)
  - It becomes necessary to write down what had previously been only spoken word
- Spiritual life and the beings found there constituted reality
- Physical world is not the reality; rather it is semblance, “Maya”, corrupt
- Reality is full of beings, above and below the human level
- Reality was created by a hierarchy of gods who had led humanity but had gradually withdrawn – their work completed.
  - Twilight of the Gods
- Crisis arises (around 800BC): how to know what to do, where to go?
  - Temples closing. Initiation failing. (After twilight comes darkness)
  - Knowledge of reincarnation vanishing. Most of wisdom not written, rather oral (and secret) tradition. (e.g. Grimm Fairy Tales)
- Response: Grasp the knowledge – learning centers (Alexander)
  - Intellectual Soul period (747 BC – 1413 AD) begins
• Daedalus was imprisoned on the island with his son Icarus. Daedalus, the master craftsman, was imprisoned because it was he who built the faux cow for the queen [soul] Pasiphae to climb into such that she could copulate with the bull [Taurus].

• Daedalus attempts to escape his prison, the Labyrinth, in which he was imprisoned at the hands of King Minos of Crete [brain-bound thinker], son of Zeus and Europa. [note: Menes, Manas, Manes, Minos variations]
  – The Labyrinth's original purpose was intended to hold Minotaur [Minos + Taurus] who has a man’s body but a bull’s head. The defeated Greeks are obliged to send annually 7 male youths and 7 maidens to be fed to Minotaur. Ariadne provides Theseus with a thread to escape the labyrinth after killing Minotaur.
Daedalus: Dualism & Mithraism

• Daedalus fashioned a pair of wings for himself and his son, made of feathers and wax. Before they took off from the prison, Daedalus warned his son [future human] to fly neither:
  – Too close to the sun, as the wax would melt, nor
  – Too close to the sea, as the feathers would become sodden

• ‘Let me warn you, Icarus, to take the middle way. Travel between the extremes.’

• Overcome by the sublime feeling that flying gave him, Icarus soared through the sky joyfully ['drawn by desire for the heavens'], but in the process he came too close to the sun, which melted his wings. Icarus’ body fell into the sea.

[Lucifer pulls our soul to him leaving the body to Ahriman] Illuminates the Greek Soul about 800 BC with its picture-thinking wisdom. Human soul needs wings to cross from the prison of the body to spirit-land
The Legend of the Battle of Dark & Light

This is the Gnostic view of the Mission / Meaning of Humankind

• The Spirits of Darkness wished to storm the Kingdom of Light. They came to its borders for the attack. They were, however, able to achieve nothing. Now they were to be punished by the Kingdom of Light. But in the Kingdom of Light there is only good. Thus the Demons of Darkness could only have been punished through good. Therefore the Spirits of the Kingdom of Light took a portion of their own kingdom and mingled it into the Kingdom of Darkness.

• Thereby a leaven, so to speak, came into the Kingdom of Darkness and a kind of vortex arose. Death became pulled into the vortex, whereby it consumed itself. It now carried within itself the seed of its own destruction. There then arose from the Kingdom of Light the Archetypal Man of the human race who must mingle with the Kingdom of Darkness and overcome it.

• Prologue to John’s Gospel: “the Light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehendeth it not”

• Paul: “To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light”
